Speaking Kudos...

“An honest, courageous, gripping dialogue in which Roni unflinchingly details the events of her past that led to her writing Parenting at Your Best, the emotional toll the tragedy has taken on her and her husband John, and her efforts to bring awareness to parents about the immediacy and fragility of their time with their children. Roni is a most articulate and down-to-earth speaker, able to captivate and engage listeners because she makes them feel as if she is speaking only to them. I look forward to the opportunity to visit again on Writers Talk with Roni to get updates on her work and on a future literary works.” -Jerry Fabyanic, Writers Talk

“Through books and speaking, she shares a very powerful and heartfelt message that engages her audience through the valuable stories, feelings, and advice she gives. Roni is a well spoken, articulate, and connecting speaker who made me feel like I was a part of her journey, and left me inspired to strive ahead in my own life, especially with my family. In the near future, we would love to have Roni join us again as a guest.” -Hamish Bayston, The Thought Hackers
